ORIENTATION SESSION FOR THE NEW CHINESE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PERPETUAL HELP SYSTEM LAGUNA (UPHSL)

Mini Auditorium, Basic Education Department, UPHSL, Biñan | May 8, 2023

The University of Perpetual Help System Laguna (UPHSL) warmly welcomed its new Chinese students during an orientation program organized by the Office of International and External Affairs. Held at the Biñan campus, the orientation familiarized students with university life, academic standards, immigration regulations, and available student services. The program was designed to help them adapt smoothly to their new academic and cultural environment.

Dr. Ferdinand C. Somido, Executive School Director, reaffirmed the university's commitment to inclusivity and internationalization. "We are proud to welcome you to UPHSL, where your presence enriches our global community," he stated.

With its strong emphasis on academic excellence and culturally responsive support, UPHSL continues to be a top choice for students from around the world.
